

Gusset

*The gusset runs the height of the trailer tying the walls of the trailer to the front nose. This is a main feature that secures the trailer for strength and stability on the tapered nose.

*The gusset for the standard nose runs mid height of the trailer tying the walls of the trailer to the front nose with the side slats to finish out the sequence.